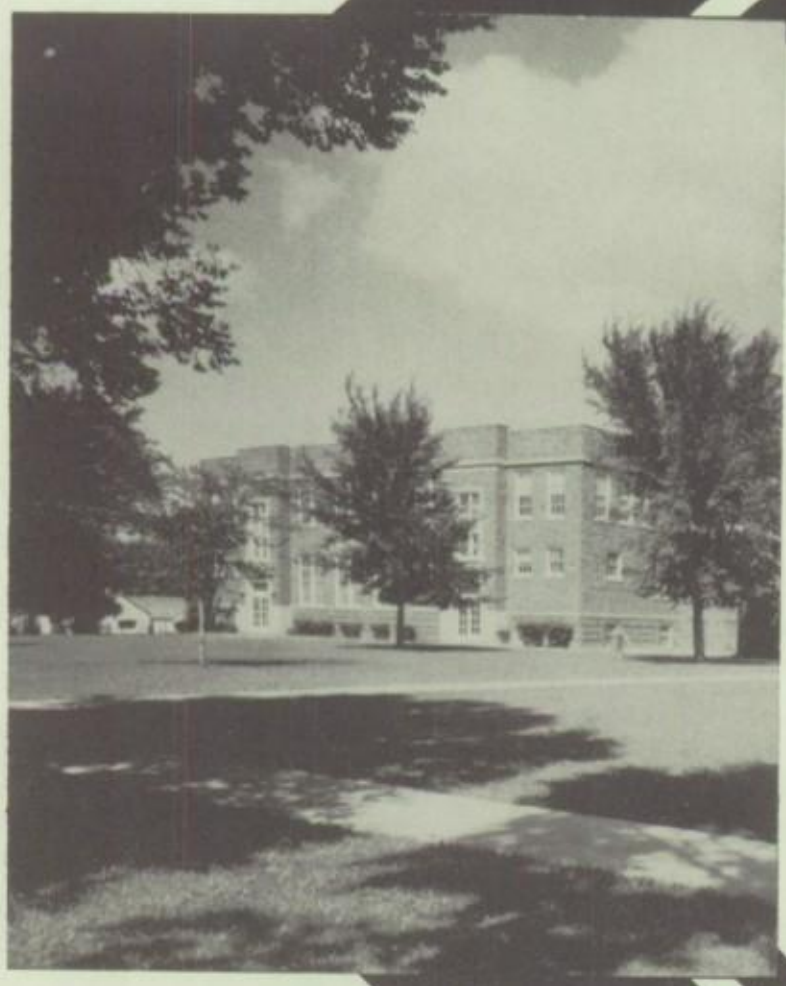
the 1955 Warrior

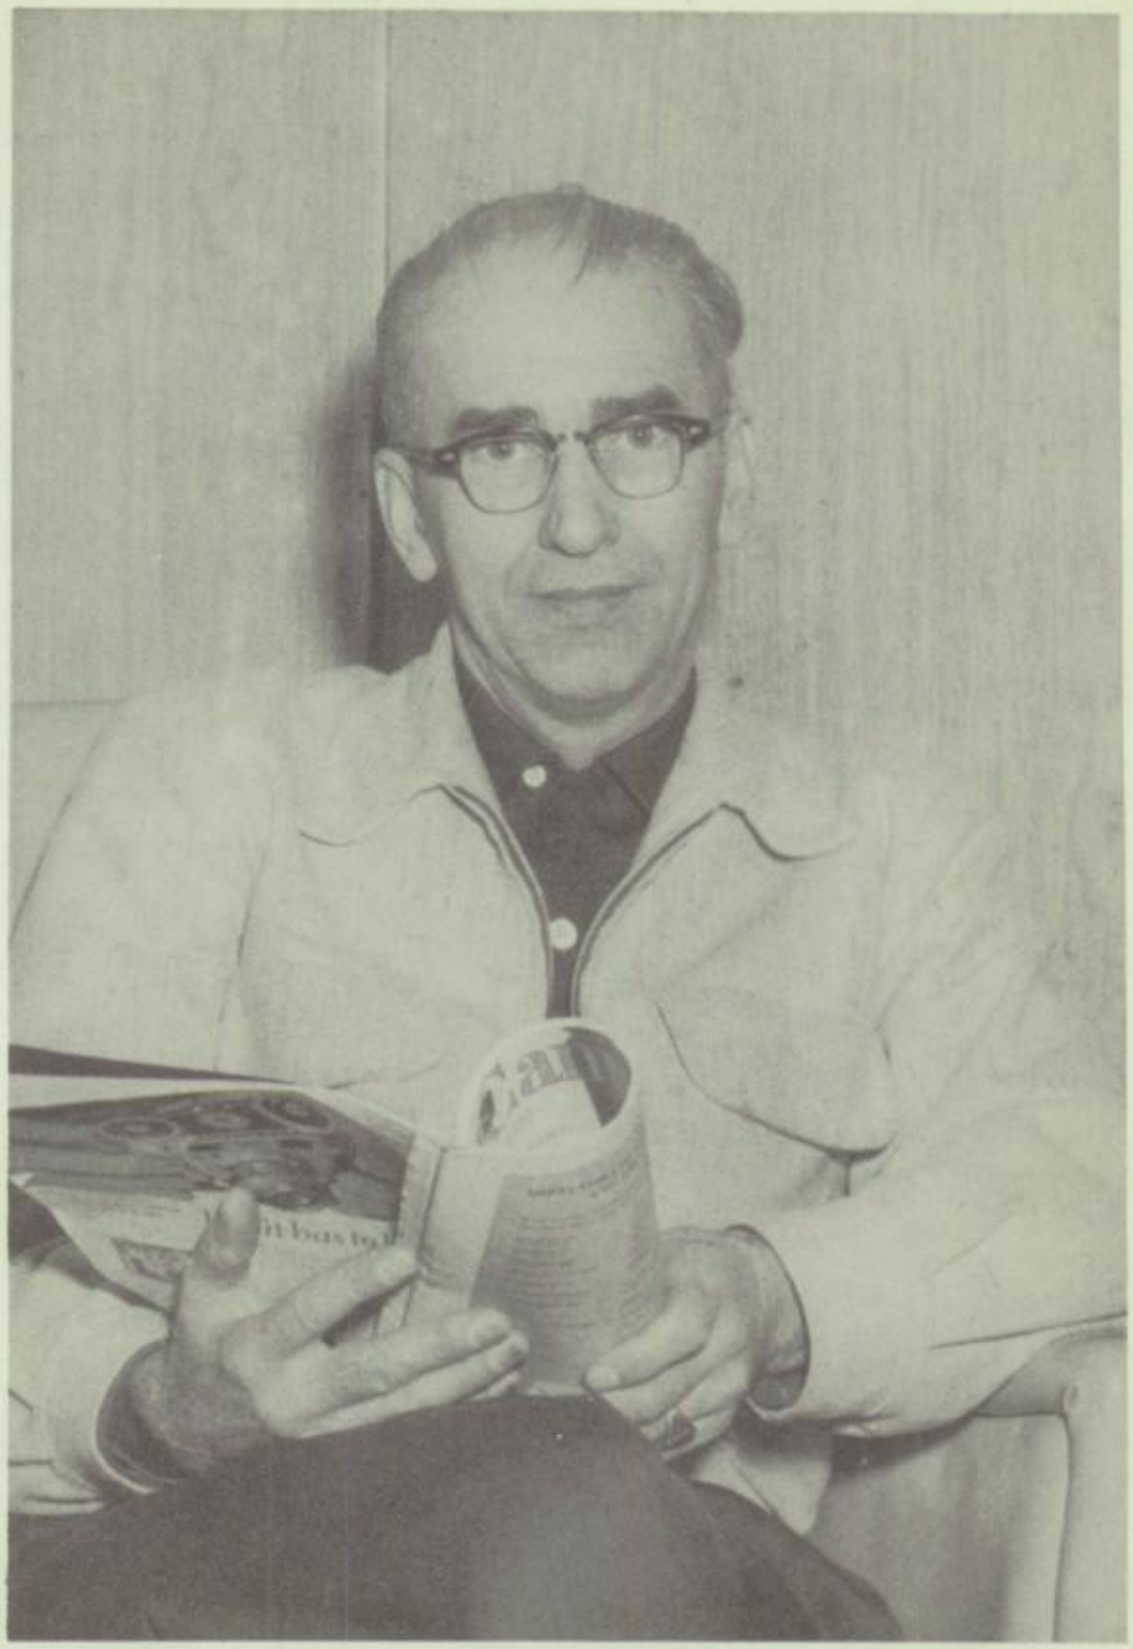


The Warrior

1955

To The Seniors: We are truly proud and grateful for having had a part in the preparation of this year book. May it be a source of much pleasure in the years to come and may success and happiness be yours all the days of your lives. — THE BODNAR STUDIO.

DEDICATION



Doc Bodnar

Remembering the effort and time you've spent towards making our high school annual a success, the support you've given us in all our activities, the friendliness and cheer you've shown to every one of us, we the Seniors of 1955 dedicate our Warrior to you, Doc Bodnar.

JUNIOR CLASS

Yes! We took our big jump from "Silly Sophomore" days to our "Jumpy Junior." We were right in the center of our high school career. We're certain this year was our best in school.

This year we started our year off with a BANG! We gave our first play and it turned out to be a wonderful success. One of the most exciting times of the year was the announcement of the arrival of our class rings. Everyone looked them over and we all came to the conclusion that they are the nicest rings that any class has ever had.

Then we came to the big project of the year, the banquet. Many steps were taken to choose the best theme. We wanted things as nice as possible for the seniors so a lot of hard work and decorating followed. During the year we had fudge and bake sales to raise money.

We certainly were a big part of high school this year, for the juniors took much interest in many of the activities. We were active in all large and small groups, both vocal and instrumental, F. H. A. and F. F. A. We also produced a cheerleader, contributed to baseball and basketball, were represented in W. N. A. X. Forum, and debate. We feel we have contributed much to our school this year and think we're the "Jumpiest Juniors" ever.

Mesalia, Ohio, is a small town of irresistable charm; until the portly Sheridan Whiteside, having dined at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Stanley, slips on their door-step, breaking his hip. A confusing six weeks of confinement follows which he later finds out is a mistake, for Dr. Bradly was looking at the wrong X-rays.

The Stanley's living room is entirely run-over by the irritating invalid, convicts are invited to meals, and trans-Atlantic calls bring a $784 phone bill.

The arrival of strange gifts from his friends further destroys the domestic life of the Stanleys. It would take an extra-ordinary housewife to manage penquins in her library, an octupus in her cellar, and 10,000 cockroaches in her kitchen.

Then to make matters worse Maggie, his faithful secretary, falls in love with the small town news reporter, Bert Jefferson.

Whiteside is furious at this and is determined to break it up. He then summons a glamorous actress, Lorraine Sheldon, to win the affection of the young man.

Knowing the girl's charm Maggie asks the aid of a clever impersonator, Beverly Carlton, who affecting the voice of Lord Bottomley, the man Lorraine hopes to marry, asks her by phone to return to him and be married.

Their disappointment is great when she finds out that it was Beverly Carlton. She resolves to stay and pay Maggie back. With the aid of mummy case Lorraine is taken away, and with the help of blackmail, Mr. Whiteside gets his way. When Mr. Whiteside leaves, he falls once again, but this time he actually breaks his hip.

On August 30, 1954 there were many new faces in junior high. The old members moved to senior high and were replaced by the excited and rather scared sixth graders and rural students.

Some of the activities the freshman could participate in this year were F. F. A. and F. H. A. At the beginning of the year many of the rural students joined band. Fourteen of the freshman had the privilege of being in sextet and double mixed quartet. Those were Janice Bartels, Linda Popma, Marjorie Hiemstra, Karen Rensink, Sandra Vander Berg, Donna Harskamp, Dawn Van Beek, Adella Juffer, Hendrene Vande Berg, Judy De Vries, Phil Den Herder, Allan Schimmel, Hugh Vander Wilt, and Martin Kuiken. The sextet sang at our Christmas program. Junior high like senior high has a pep club which many of the seventh and eighth grade students belong to. Among many other things, junior high gives plays. The seventh and eighth grade gives one play and the freshman give two plays. Many attend and enjoy them very much.

FEATURES

Warrior Favorites

Pictured here are Ron Juffer and Audrey Mc Murray. These two seniors were elected by the student body as being the best liked in the Senior Class.

Class History

In August, 1951, fifty five green little freshmen came into Sioux Center High School to further their education. During the year Eugene Klaaren joined us. We chose as our motto for Junior High Commencement, "Not at the top but climbing." Our colors were lavender and white.

We started our sophomore year by going around the study hall singing, "I'm a Little Prairie Flower" and bowing to the seniors for initiation. Our biggest project this year was decorating the study hall at Christmas. Gordon De Weerd did not come back. Jay Vos, Lloyd Punt, and Henry Pennings left us during the year.

Fred Brandes, Chris Clay, and Garold Cleveringa did not return for our junior year. Dick Kraayenbrink, Glen Sandbulte, and Truman Raak joined us. During the year Jeanne Clay left us. The two projects we had were our class play; "The Little Dog Laughed" and the Junior-Senior Banquet, "Deep South."

Not returning for our senior year were Pete De Jong and Truman Raak. Others leaving us during the course of the year were Don De Gooyer and Marvin Brommer. Senior Fun Night, Senior Class Play, Skip Day, Career Day, and the Annual helped to rush us to the end of our happy high school days. We ended this year with the Junior-Senior Picnic and Commencement.

EDITORIAL

Extra! The top tune now playing on juke boxes is "I Just Can't Seem to Find My Gal" by John Van Riessen. Another delight in the music field is Chicago Symphony's bass player, Henry Kroon, playing, "Dancing in the Dark."

Duane Vande Berg has just finished another best seller, "My Own Tall Tales."

The main highlight in Sioux Center this week was the Fourteenth Annual 4-H Fair. Featured in it were Erwin Van Beek and Darrel Rensink's famous Thrill Rides. An evening of special entertainment was provided by Gary Boeyink, famous ventriloquist, assisted by Julia Sneller. Another main attraction at the fair was the disappearing act done by John Haverhals and Adrianna Kleene.

CHURCH NEWS

The Reformed Church of Graduate, Iowa, extended a call to our local pastor, Rev. Eugene Klaaren. He has declined the call on the grounds that he is too busy translating Pilgrim's Progress into the Hawaiian language to convert the Hula dancers.

Winona Wissink and Delma Rensink have transferred from the local church to Lebanon.

Vernie Hulstein leaves her unending giggle to Sharon Den Herder.

Wilma Kempers leaves her shorthand ability to anyone who can't write fast enough.

Adrianna Kleene wills her front seat in English Lit. class to Francis Rons because we think he'll end up there anyway.

Audrey Mc Murray wills her cheerleading tights to Duane Winterfeld if he promises to use them.

Janie Vernon wills her nights to anyone who thinks he can stay up that late.

Winona Wissink leaves her vocal powers to Eddie Vander Weide.

Marge Bartels wills her "A" grades to the Grade A Milk Company.

Ruth De Zeeuw wills her Saturday night dates to anyone who runs out of Sunday nights.

Elaine De Jager wills her exciting Monday morning gab sessions to Rosella Vander Berg.

Sylvia Kleyer and Emilene Schoep leave together as usual.

Delma Rensink wills her love for farm life to Sharon Van Beek.

Shirley Schaap wills her home work to the Sophomore biology class.

Beverly Schenk wills her dimples to Irwin De Boer.

Milly Schuiteman wants to reverse the process. Instead of giving something she would like to have someone give her a few extra pounds. Any volunteers may see Milly later.

Norma Schuiteman and Shirley Schut will the restroom mirror to the underclassmen. Now's your chance, girls — grab it!

Julia Sneller wills her soft voice to Carol Cleveringa.

George Douma and Henry Kroon will their chemistry books back to the school even though they hate to leave them behind.

Terry Duits wills his ability as a grease monkey to Erma Voorderman.

Ron Juffer wills his unusual laugh to anyone who wants to be funny.

Gene Klaaren wills his ability to make public addresses to Gary Riphagen.

John Van Riessen leaves his booklet "Instructions on How to Drive" to the future drivers' training girls.

Duane Vander Berg wills his muscular build to Carol Gravengoed.

Carl Vermeer wills his hunting ability to Roland Hulstein provided he hunts two-legged deer like Carl did.

Darrell Beernink leaves his naps in bookkeeping to Joan De Ruyter.

Gary Boeyink wills one half of his ability as a drummer to Mr. Sneller and the other half to Mr. Lubach.

Vernon Beernink wills his jail sentence to anyone who can get some friends to go along.

Kenneth Doornink wills his cowboy boots to Ruth Warntjes so we can tell when she's coming.

John Haverhals wills school bus No. 5 back to the school.

Wilmer Hulstein will his motto "Children should be seen and not heard" to Paul Vander Berg.

Dick Kraayenbrink wills his ability to drive with one hand and with the other hand engage in other activities to Jim Vande Berg.

Herb Kuyper wills his soft pillow and inner spring mattress to Alden Berkenpas so his naps in class will be as enjoyable as Herb's were.

Darrel Rensink wills his "Chevy" to Robert Haverhals provided he gets a girl to go with it.

Glen Sandbulte wills his ability to argue to anyone who thinks he can handle the situation.

Marvin Te Grotenhuis. We'll will Marv's practical jokes to anyone at all, just to get rid of them.

Erwin Van Beek wills half-interest in his car to the girl who rides in it the most.

Marvin Prins wills his wavy hair to any girl who wishes she was born with natural curly hair.

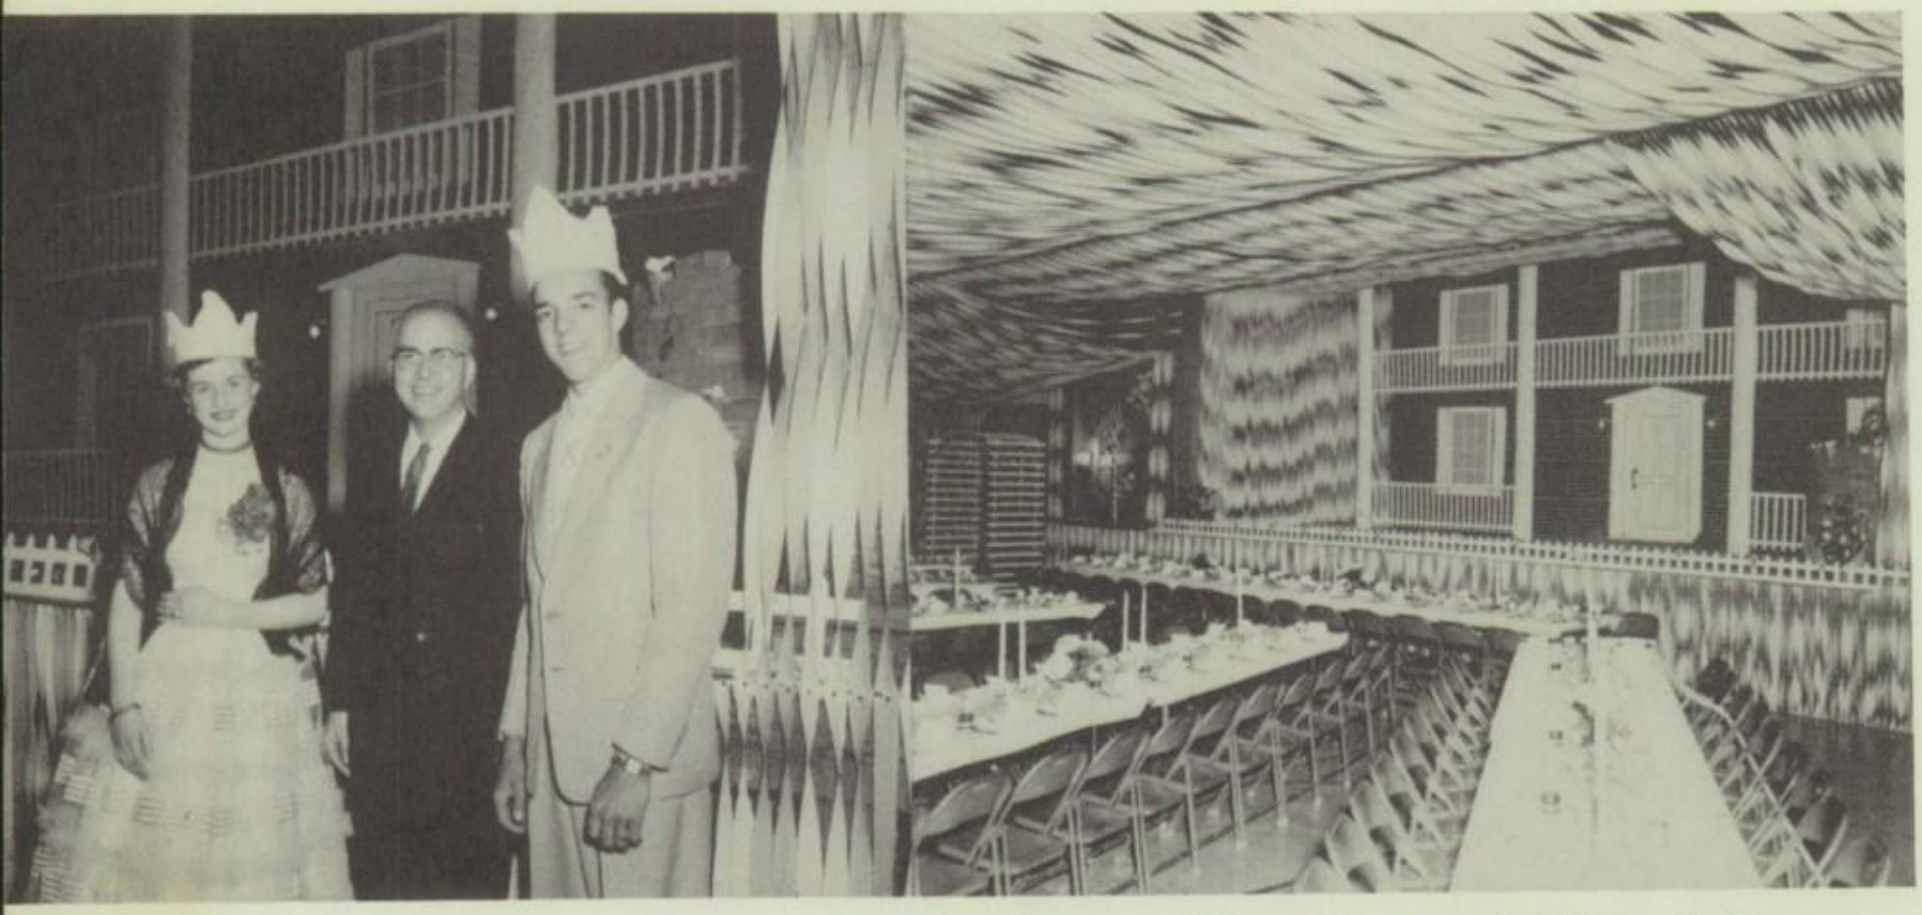
SOUTHERN PLANTATION



We chose a southern plantation for our theme. Punch was served from a vine covered wishing well. The entire gym was decorated in various shades of rose ranging from a deep wine to a pale pink. In one corner was a slave hand in a field of cotton. In another corner was a white garden bench shaded by a magnolia tree. The stage displayed our southern mansion. Huge white pillars accented the red brick home. Our dinner, which consisted of cotton balls, Virginian delights, golden slippers, Carolina moon salad and short nin' bread, was served by Negro waiters and waitresses.

Our program for the evening is as follows:

Opening Prayer ..... Uncle Remus ..... Mr. Kinsey
Toastmaster .... Colonel Dixie ..... Eugene Klaaren
Welcome ..... Mistress Dixie ..... Marge Bartels
Deep River .... Minstrel Boy ..... Eddie Osborne
Queen Cotton ..... Wanda Den Herder
King Cotton ..... Ted Vonk

Southern Melody . Kentucky Babe . Ardene Sandbulte
Swanee Tune ..... Twin Banjos ..... Marge Bartels
Gary Boeyink
Dixie Doodle ..... Southern Belles .... Girls' Sextet
Senior Speaker ..... Missy Dinah ..... Eva Mouw
Farewell .. Chocolate Drops .. Waiters and Waitresses

P-E-P C-L-U-B, we all know that this spells the name of one of the most active clubs in high school. Again this year many new and original stunts were given by the Pep Club at the Pep meetings.

This organization is comprised of five members from each of the three upper grades in high school.

The fine program given in the assembly at Christmas was arranged by the Pep Club girls.

Our sponsor for this year was Mrs. Lorna Rollag, the high school commercial teacher.

The Future Homemakers of America is an organization which creates a further interest in Home Economics. This organization promotes international good will and encourages democracy in home and community life.

Some of the highlights of the year were the F. H. A.—F. F. A. party, the all high school party sponsored by the F. H. A. and F. F. A., the Sioux Center-Hawarden F. H. A. party, the Christmas supper and the making of favors for the hospital. All the girls enjoyed the Spencer Fair and the Valentine Skating party.

Under the leadership of Miss Lauterbach, our chapter mothers, and our president we have put into effect the parliamentary procedure which makes our meetings very interesting. Through F. H. A. we have learned to live together and to know each other better. As the seniors leave school they will be able to go "Toward New Horizons" with a steadfast hope and mind!

The F. F. A. is a national organization of boys enrolled in vocational agriculture. The purpose of this organization is to get the boys better acquainted with the farm as well as teach them scientific methods of farming.

At the beginning of the year the officers went to the lakes for a week end to draw up the program of work, which includes most of the activities of the coming year.

In October it is generally arranged for some of the boys and advisor to go to Kansas City for the National Convention. We also held our Parent-Son Banquet that month.

Throughout the year we held regularly scheduled meetings and had some seasonal recreation after each.

In the spring we have election of officers and have some delegates go to the State Convention which is held in the larger cities throughout the state.

This year something new in the field of journalism for Sioux Center has been started. It is a newspaper called the Moccasin Squeek. It occupied one-half page in The Sioux Center News every two weeks. The students wrote on the activities and highlights as they occurred. The sponsor for the newspaper was Miss Plummer, the junior high English teacher. Mary Ann Klaaren was the editor and Carollee De Ruyter the assistant editor.

The debate teams consisted of sophomores, juniors, and seniors this year. The affirmative members were Eleanor Van Velzen, Carollee De Ruyter, Mary Ann Klaaren, and Shirley Schaap.

The negative members were Erma Voorderman, George Douma, Marge Bartels, and Eugene Klaaren. The topic for debate was "Resolved: That the federal government should initiate a policy of free trade among nations friendly to the United States."

The local high school belonged to two forensic leagues, the Iowa High School Forensic League which held their tournament in Emmetsburg on February 24, and the Iowa High School Speech Association whose tournament was in Orange City on February 19. Only three teams were entered in this tournament, so the debate team advanced to the District. The members of debate all had an enjoyable time learning the art of debate.

The WNAX Forum discussed the topic "The Importance of the Academic Program In the High Schools."

The recording was transcribed over the radio March 21.

The Thespian Society is an honorary organization of high school people throughout the nation who are working on dramatics. In order to be a member, a student must be in a three-act play and speak a designated number of lines.

During the school year we participated in several activities such as formal and informal initiation, skits, and various other parties.

For the formal initiation we went to the home of one of the members for dinner. After the dinner the new members took their pledge.

On the day of informal initiation all candidates dressed up for a skit and acted it out. They kept these clothes on for the remainder of the day.

ATHLETICS

VICTORY, VICTORY

THAT'S OUR CRY.

Early in the year, the student body chose four girls from the senior high school to lead the student body in yells for this year. From the six who competed, the following were chosen: Audrey Mc Murray and Jane Vernon, seniors—Joan De Ruyter, junior—Carollee De Ruyter, sophomore.

At the first pep meeting and game they appeared in striking blue satin outfits which featured short skirts with white piping and jackets with an inverted pleat in front, french cuffs with pearl cuff links. The sleeves and mandarin collar were also trimmed with piping. The outfits also included white mocassins with orange and blue beads, orange tights and large orange Indian heads on the back.

Cheerleading activities included not only leading yells at games but also supervising pep meetings, selling pencils, selling refreshments at baseball games, and practicing and teaching new yells.

This energetic group of girls did a fine job of raising basketball enthusiasm and school spirit during the entire season and to them—15 RAHS!

Siouxland's Best

The highly ranked Warriors again advanced to the state tournament this season for the fourth time in the past seven years. They did it the hard way this year, due to the fact that there were only eight teams competing in the state tournament held at Des Moines. They were picked as Siouxland's best team throughout the entire year by both the Sioux City paper and also by the A. P. Poll which is composed of all sports writers throughout the state.

The Warriors finished the season with 31 wins and 2 defeats which is one of the best records ever compiled by a Sioux Center team. Under the coaching of Paul Muyskens the team averaged 77 points a game and holding their opponents to 55 average. One of the main reasons for the teams success was the well-balanced scoring. Ron Juffer led the team with 593 points for a 19.2 average. He was followed up closely by 6 foot 6 inch Dick Kraayenbrink with 490 points for a 15.5 average; Darrell Beernink with 438 for a 13.9 average; John Van Riessen, 430 points, an average of 13.1; Duane Vande Berg, 254 points, averaging 7.9; Alden Berkenpas scored 132 points as 6th man.

Sioux Center downed Le Mars, the second-ranked team in Northwest Iowa, twice including an 80-76 victory in the district tournament which was one of the best played games ever to be seen played by two high school teams.

Maurice handed the Warriors their only defeat in seasonal play when they downed them in the semi-finals of the county tournament when two of the regulars were sick with the flu. However, Sioux Center got revenge when they beat the Monarchs in the sub-state finals. The other defeat came in the hands of Davenport St. Ambrose in the first round of the state tournament. Davenport went on to take 3rd place.

B Team

The B team was again successful in winning more than half their games against very good competition. They ended the season with 12 wins and 8 losses. Playing against many double A schools, the Howard Lubach coached team either came out on top or lost by a very narrow margin. The little chiefs took two games from Sioux City Heelan, the last one in an overtime affair. The B's played with all freshmen and sophomores except for Arnold Dorhout and Truman Bartels who were juniors. Bud Harsma, a junior, came down from the varsity squad to finish off the last few games of the season with the B's. Paul Vande Berg led the scoring with 251 points, followed by Truman Bartels with 147, Ronnie Rozeboom with 125, Arnold Dorhout with 123, Carl Berkenpas with 122, and Wally Vander Wilt with 52 points. Being that the varsity squad is composed of mostly seniors, the future of the Sioux Center basketball teams for the next few years will rely heavily on these players and if they keep on improving like they have the last year, Sioux Center will have another fine basketball team next season.

Junior High Basketball

The junior high basketball team was very successful this year. Out of the ten games played they only lost three. They also were very successful in the county tourney by becoming the champs of the 54-55 school year.

Cheerleaders

Victory, Victory that's our cry has been yelled many times this year. Junior high is very proud of their team, not only freshman boys but some of the seventh and eighth grade boys played, too.

Our cheerleaders did a wonderful job this year. Eight girls tried out and four were chosen by the students. They were Sandy Schutt, Lois Hollander, Maureen Te Paske and Dawn Van Beek. They yelled at junior high games and also at the home games of the high school team. They wore blue and white corduroy outfits with white moccasins.

For the third time in the past three and one half years the baseball team came within one game of the state tournament. Under the conditions in the past years the Indians would have been entitled to a berth in the state meet, but this year it was cut down to a four team tournament instead of the usual eight games.

The team had an excellent defense this year committing only twelve errors in nine games. There were also some hard hits during the season including two home runs by Paul Vande Berg and one each by Duane Vande Berg, John Van Riessen, and Ronnie Juffer.
